The Busan Indie Connect Festival (BIC) is a global event dedicated to independent video games, held annually in Busan (South Korea) since its inception in 2015.

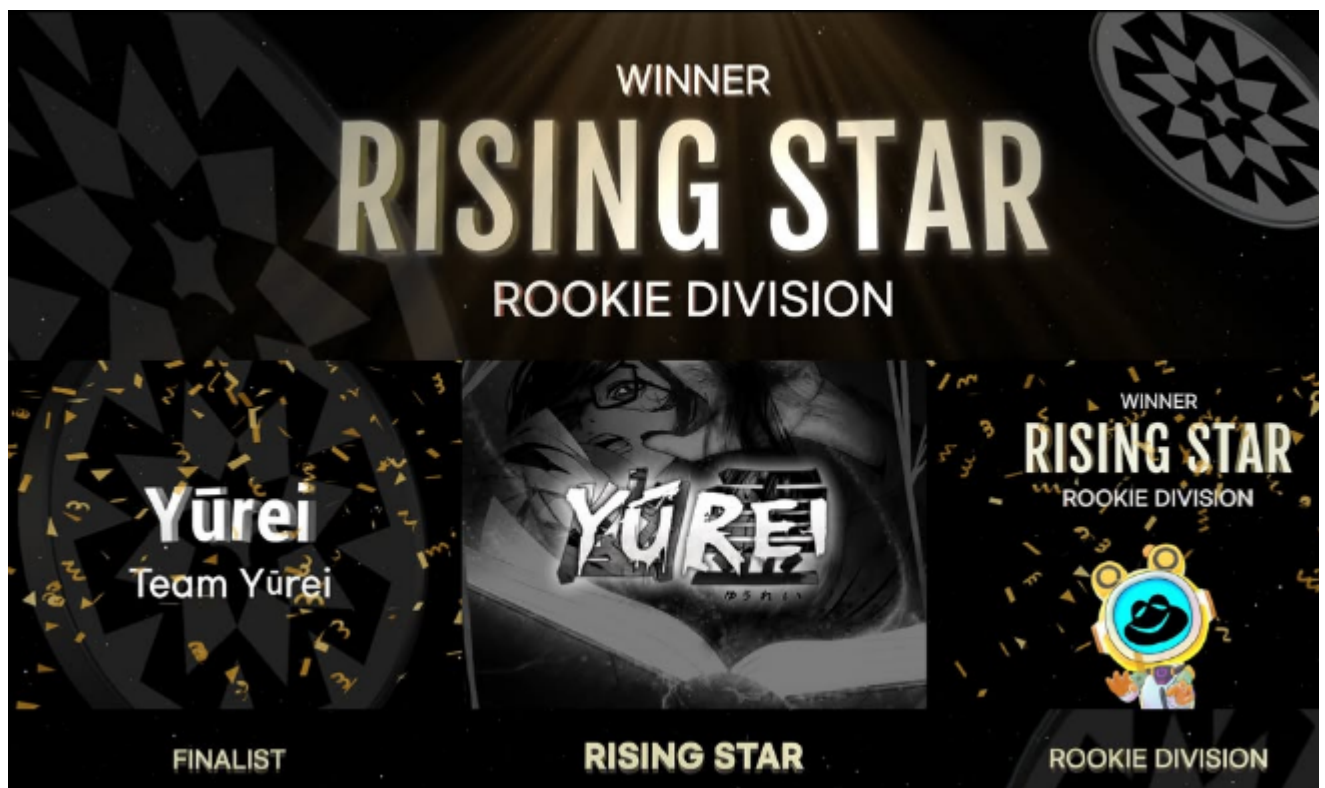

This year, 856 entries from 57 different countries were submitted, with 180 games ultimately selected.

The games presented at BIC 2026 are divided into two sections: competitive and non-competitive. The competitive section comprises two categories: General and Rookie.

The three student games from Cnam-Enjmin were selected for the Rookie category, reserved for student projects and final-year projects, which were assessed by a jury of industry professionals.
