

French National School of Video Games and Digital Interactive Media

NEW DEGREE PROGRAMME

New International Master's degree

Coming in September 2028!

The International Master's degree in Video Games and Digital Interactive Media has been designed for undergraduate students who wish to specialise in video game design and development, whether their goal is to work for independent or blockbuster studios. They will study in a multicultural environment, all while learning the French savoir-faire. All classes are taught in-person and in English by renowned academics and industry professionals.
